

Membership – Application / Renewal 2014-15

Laura and Alfred West Cottage Homes (LAWCH) is guided by eight key principles - Ethics; Affordability; Stewardship; Growth; Alliances; Stability; Support and People Focus - for staff, members and volunteers that are consistent with the foundational objective of LAWCH and are fundamental to the way we operate.

The Foundational Objective of LAWCH is to provide independent living housing choices to persons aged over 55 years with a particular focus on those in need for the relief of poverty and the benefit of the community.

All members of LAWCH have a legal and moral responsibility to conduct themselves in the best interests of the community we serve. This is articulated in the LAWCH Code of Practice:

- ✓ Act with regard to the Constitution and Guiding Principles of LAWCH
- ✓ Act in a lawful manner
- ✓ Act in good faith in the best interests of LAWCH
- ✓ Act fairly and impartially
- ✓ Act with confidentiality
- ✓ Act appropriately to your position
- ✓ Act in a financially responsible manner
- ✓ Act with due care, diligence, stewardship and skill
